

Press Release

Winner of the DORUS-lottery is fixed

Formula 1 Race at Hockenheim

The winner of lottery of Henkel Dorus GmbH is fixed. The company from Bopfingen raffled high-value prizes during LIGNA+ HANNOVER 2005, the world-wide largest trade fair for the woodworking and furniture industry. Out of the about 500 participants from 38 countries, Martin Ostendarp of Hülsta, Stadtlohn is happy about the first prize. He will visit with his wife the Formula 1 Mobil 1 Grand Prix of Germany in Hockenheim. Further attractive prizes were won by Japanese, Turkish and other Europeans.

Düsseldorf/Bopfingen – Since 2004 Henkel has been very involved with the field of motor sports. At that date the Henkel logo appears for the first time on the tail wing of the Team McLaren Mercedes Boliden and thus continues the technical partnership with Team McLaren Mercedes, which was started with the trade name Loctite in 1995. In the meantime more than 100 different applications of Henkel products support the Team McLaren Mercedes with its MP4-20 in the competition with Formula 1 world championship 2005.

But innovative technology is not only requested by Formula 1 races:

Henkel belongs to the world-wide leading suppliers of tailor-made adhesives and sophisticated system solutions for the woodworking and furniture industry. "Adhesives and systems" is the concept of DORUS, the expert for woodworking adhesives. First-class products, world-wide established customer service and high competence of process optimisation are meant – short: solution oriented concepts.
