

Biography

May 2026

Warangkana Siriyodhipun

President of Henkel Thailand

Effective May 2026, Warangkana Siriyodhipun was appointed President of Henkel Thailand. In this role, she oversees Henkel's operations in Thailand, driving sustainable growth by advancing strategic priorities, strengthening market position and enhancing overall business performance.

Warangkana also serves as the Head of Finance and Compliance for Henkel Thailand, a position she has held since joining the company in 2013. She has been instrumental in strengthening financial governance and enabling business growth across the region. During a period based in the UK, she took on regional financial responsibility for the Beauty Care business across several European markets.

Prior to joining Henkel, Warangkana held senior business planning and financial management roles at multinational organisations, including Novartis, and brings more than 20 years of experience in local and regional financial management and leadership. Her expertise spans financial operations, business controlling (FP&A), and governance across wholly owned and joint-venture environments, with industry experience across industrial and technology, pharmaceutical, FMCG, and oil and gas sectors.

Warangkana holds a Master's degree in Finance from the University of Sydney, Australia, and a degree in Accounting from Thammasat University, Thailand.