Leadership Appointment

Henkel Appoints Warangkana Siriyodhipun as President of Henkel Thailand

Bangkok, Thailand — Henkel has appointed Warangkana Siriyodhipun as President of Henkel Thailand, effective May 2026. Based in Bangkok, Warangkana will oversee the company's operations in Thailand, driving sustainable growth by advancing strategic priorities, strengthening market position and enhancing overall business performance.

Warangkana also serves as the Head of Finance and Compliance for Henkel Thailand, a position she has held since joining the company in 2013. Over the years, she has been instrumental in supporting the company's growth and strategic priorities, playing a key role in major initiatives, including acquisitions and joint venture partnerships. Prior to joining Henkel, Warangkana held senior business planning and financial management roles at multinational organisations, including Novartis, and brings more than 20 years of experience in local and regional financial management and leadership.

"Warangkana has been a key member of our leadership team in Thailand. We welcome her appointment and are confident she will lead Henkel Thailand into its next phase of growth, building on our strong foundation and market momentum," said Hendrik Kohleick, President of Henkel Asia-Pacific.

"I am honoured to take on this role and to continue working alongside our teams in Thailand," said Warangkana. "Together, we will focus on strengthening our business, supporting our customers and partners, and delivering sustainable growth in the market."

Established in 1972, Henkel Thailand operates in the Adhesive Technologies and Consumer Brands businesses. The company has its head office in Bangkok, with manufacturing sites supporting customers across Thailand and the region.
