New Henkel online seminar on the topic of “Food Packaging”

Webinar about Migration in Food Packaging and how to restrict its effects

As the leading solution provider for adhesives, sealants and functional coatings, Henkel is deeply committed to finding ways of improving food packaging safety. On its knowledge platform “Food Safe Packaging Portal”, Henkel will be holding a webinar on the topic of “Migration – How to restrict its effects” on November 19, 2015 at 09:00 AM CET and at 04:00 PM CET.

In this webinar, to be held in English, Dr. Monika Tönnießen will explain migration and its consequences for the packed food and the packaging itself. In addition she will be talking about factors influencing migration and various options to lower the migration risk.

Dr. Monika Tönnießen is a chemist in the Product Safety department of Henkel’s Adhesive Technologies business unit. She is an expert in all aspects of material contact with foodstuffs and is a member of the Paper and Packaging Working Group of the Association of European Adhesives and Sealants Manufacturers (FEICA).

The purpose of the offered live webinars is to shed light on important issues surrounding food packaging safety. Participants are also able to put their questions live and online to the Henkel presenters while the webinars are still in progress. Interested parties are invited to visit the website www.henkel.com/foodsafety and have a look at the webinar calendar for 2015. Registrants will gain access to the Premium Area, which offers white papers, a comprehensive glossary, and videos covering a range of key issues.

Henkel operates worldwide with leading brands and technologies in three business areas: Laundry & Home Care, Beauty Care and Adhesive Technologies. Founded in 1876, Henkel holds globally leading market positions both in the consumer and industrial businesses with well-known brands such as Persil, Schwarzkopf and Loctite. Henkel employs about 50,000 people and reported sales of 16.4 billion euros and adjusted operating profit of 2.6 billion euros in fiscal 2014. Henkel's preferred shares are listed in the German stock index DAX.
