

Kaspar von Braun, Ph.D

Astrophysicist, Pasadena

Born Bonn, February 12, 1971

Member of the Supervisory Board of Henkel AG & Co. KGaA
since April 19, 2010

Career

Since 2004	Astronomer, Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Arizona, USA
2013 – 2014	Astronomer, Max Planck Institute of Astronomy, Heidelberg
2006 – 2012	Astronomer, California Institute of Technology & NASA, Pasadena, California, USA
2002 – 2005	Astronomer, Carnegie Institute for Science, Washington, D.C., USA

Education

1996 – 2002	Doctorate in Astronomy and Astrophysics, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA, award of Ph.D.
1994 – 1996	Masters in Astronomy, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA, Master of Science
1991 – 1994	Degree in Physics, Ludwig Maximilians University Munich

Memberships of statutory supervisory boards and in comparable German or foreign oversight bodies of commercial enterprises

- None